Larry O'Reilly

Parker, CO

Simplify the program so that schools do not need to hire vendors to help them apply.

Include a base amount ($1K-$3K) of funding for improving Internet access that is not dependent on rural; vs urban, or on family income levels, and vastly simplify that application process, with a site inspection verification of proper use of funding.